How's Your Liver?

Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy Liver. When the Liver is torpid the Bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood; frequent headache ensues; a feeling of lassitude, despondency and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged. Simmons Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy Liver than any agency known on earth. It acts with extraordinary power and efficacy.

NEVER BEEN DISAPPOINTED.
As a general family remedy for dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Constipation, etc., I hardly ever use anything else, and have never been disappointed in the effect produced; it seems to be almost a perfect cure for all diseases of the Stomach and Bowels.

THE ANGEL OF SORROW.

A poet whose songs were as sweet as could be, But were light as the foam of the restless sea. Was stopped one day, on his joyous way, By an angel, who said: "I would speak with thee.

"Every true poet should aim to bring Peace to some heart by the songs he may sing; But how can he know what will comfort woe Until he has felt in his own heart its sting?"

"Thy life has been free from sorrow or care; Hast thou the courage to suffer, and share The grief and pain of others, to gain The power to cheer those who burdens bear?"

The poet made answer, "I have no fear Of pain if it bring me the power to cheer; Lay a cross upon me, and, though heavy it be, Close will I hold it as a treasure dear."

The angel said gravely: "Thou hast chosen aright. And a cross will be laid upon thee tonight; There is one to thee dear, and her loss, I fear, Will be hard to endure"—then vanished from sight.

This was long ago, the poet, grief worn, Has through the slow years his cross bravely borne; His songs are replete with sympathy sweet, And are dear to the hearts that loved ones mourn.

He firmly trusts in a heavenly morrow, His verses their charm from suffering borrow. On her grand roll Fame has written his name— It was whispered to her by the angel Sorrow. —Charles W. Linnell in Good Housekeeping.

To Tell Pure Silk.

If you wish to purchase by sample and to test the quality of silk take ten fibers of the filling of any silk, and if on breaking they show a feathery dry and lackluster condition, and discolor the fingers in handling, you may at once be sure of the presence of dye and of artificial weighting.

Or take a small portion of the fibers between the thumb and forefinger and gently roll them over and over, and you will soon detect the gum, mineral, soap, etc., should their be any, or their absence.

Another simple but effective way to test the purity of silk is to burn a small quantity of the fibers. Pure silk will instantly crisp, leaving only a pure charcoal. Heavily dyed silk will smolder, leaving a greasy yellow ash.

If you cannot break the ten strands, and if they do not discolor the fingers at the point of contact, you may be well assured that you have pure silk, that is honest in its make and durable in the wear. —Detroit Free Press.

The Prayer Should Have Been Answered.

A member of a certain Massachusetts parish, prominent for his thrift and personal consequence, was also notorious for his overbearing assumptions and pompous airs. Under the distress and fright of a dangerous illness he "put up notes" on several successive Sundays, and after his recovery, according to usage, he offered a note, to be read by the minister, expressive of his thanks.

The minister was somewhat "large" in this part of his prayer, recalling the danger and the previous petitions of the "squire," and returning his grateful acknowledgments with the prayer that the experience might be blessed to the spiritual welfare of the restored man. He closed with these words:

"And we pray, O Lord, that thy servant may be cured of that ungodly strut, so offensive in the sanctuary." —Atlantic Monthly

Pocketbooks in Letter Boxes.

From time to time pocketbooks are found in the pillar boxes. Pickpockets have taken this way of returning to their owners whom they have robbed the valuable contents of pocketbooks, generally papers, which are of no use to any one but the owner. The thieves in this way get rid of articles which might lead to their conviction, and at the same time assuage the losses of the pocketbooks in some measure. They of course have no time to do up a package, but drop the articles into the most convenient boxes. —London Tit-Bits.

"German Syrup"

J. C. Davis, Rector of St. James' Episcopal Church, Eufaula, Ala.: "My son has been badly afflicted with a fearful and threatening cough for several months, and after trying several prescriptions from physicians which failed to relieve him, he has been perfectly restored by the use of two bottles of Bo-schee's German Syrup. I can recommend it without hesitation." Chronic severe, deep-seated coughs like this are as severe tests as a remedy can be subjected to. It is for these long-standing cases that Bo-schee's German Syrup is made a specialty. Many others afflicted as this lad was, will do well to make a note of this

J. F. Arnold, Montevideo, Minn., writes: I always use German Syrup for a Cold on the Lungs. I have never found an equal to it—far less a superior

MORE CADETS WANTED.

The report of the Board of Visitors to the West Point Military Academy, has been received by the Secretary of War. The Board inclines to the belief that an increase in the corps of cadets is necessary to take full advantage of the capacity of the Academy. The Committee on Appointments and Examinations therefore agreed to recommend the passage of an Act, fixing the strength of the corps of cadets at the maximum of 409.

The Board also recommends that in addition to the present allotment of one cadet to each Representative and delegate in Congress, two cadets be allotted to each State at large, to be nominated by the Senators respectively, and that the President be authorized to nominate twenty from the country at large.

It seems that the number of appointments now allotted the several States are not filled. Under the existing regulations a Congressman has the option of arbitrarily appointing a cadet, or determining by competitive examination, who shall be appointed. As a general rule the Congressman makes the selection regardless of qualification, and the youth, who would be a cadet, goes to West Point at his own expense and is rejected for physical or educational disability leaving a vacancy for the term in the Academy.

The law governing the appointment of cadets should be changed so that Congressmen cannot discriminate against merit for political or other reasons. There should be competitive examinations held in every Congressional district and the young man who proves himself most worthy in a fair contest should receive the appointment.

FREE COINAGE BROUGHT HOME.

When Mr. Reed's Congress increased the duty on tin plate, the excuse was that it would build up factories for the manufacture of the article in this country and give employment to many persons. When Mr. Reed's Congress was asked to pass a free coinage bill, it refused to do so, though it was shown that it would give employment to a hundred times more persons than the tin plate industry. Now it is shown that the increased tariff on the workman's dinner bucket does not enhance the price of his labor nor increase the demand for it, while it is also made apparent that the low price of silver is still further reducing the number engaged in silver mining.

At Candelaria, in Esmeralda county, 400 men find themselves out of employment at the beginning of Winter.

The mine owners could not work their ores profitably at the present low price of silver, so they closed their works. This had the effect of reducing the business of the Carson & Colorado railroad, and one of the crews on that road was discharged. It changes the lively village of Candelaria, where thousands of dollars were disbursed monthly, into a deserted mining camp, of which there are many in the State, all owing to the infamous Wrong of 1873, and the refusal of the perpetrators to right it.

But the organs of the dominant party complacently proclaim that the remonetization of silver is not a political issue. If such is the fact then it is high time that it was made one.

The people should assert their manhood, and rise in their might against the bosses and place hunters, and support for electors and Representatives, men who will not upon any pretext, vote for a Presidential candidate, or with a party that is not in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of silver.

PORK PROHIBITION.

The French officials in withdrawing the decree of the prohibition of the importation of American pork desire it understood that their action was practically decided upon a year ago, but actually settled last July when the Deputies gave an overwhelming vote in favor of the bill. They also insist that they caused the removal of the prohibition by the German Government which did not intend to withdraw its prohibition unless France did.

Either the French officials or the American gentlemen who are giving the Administration credit for everything, except hard times, are mistaken. It was telegraphed from Washington recently that the Administration was negotiating with Germany for the admission of American pork into that country in consideration of German beet sugar being admitted free of duty in the United States. If Germany only awaited the action of France to withdraw its prohibition then the Harrison boomers are mistaken, whereas if the German Chancellor admitted pork because our Government admits German beet sugar, then the Frenchman are wrong.

According to statistics it will not make very much difference with the American hog, whether his bacon is prohibited in Germany or not. There is a tariff on American pork that virtually excludes it from the German market, and unless that is reduced, very little of it will find its way into Germany.

Our contemporary is "horried" at what it terms "the attempt of some of its Democratic contemporaries to connect the Carson Mint with the alleged crookedness of the Nevada Mill Company in its treatment of Hale & Norcross ore," wholly ignoring the fact that the testimony shows that Republicans made the connection between the mill and mine, and that Democrats are not in the least responsible for connecting the Bullion Bank with the Mint by making the Cashier of the Bank the Chief Clerk of the Mint.

The report comes from Washington that out of 280 members of Congress, polled on the silver question, 171 favor unlimited coinage of silver, 100 oppose it and 9 are doubtful. Fifty-four Senators favor free coinage; 38 oppose it, and one (Brice) is doubtful. It will take 59 votes in the Senate to pass a bill over the President's veto.

The Democratic National Committee will meet in Washington January 11, 1892, to name the time and place for holding the National Convention.

News of Importance From Home and Abroad.

CONGRESS ORGANIZED.

The Vote for Speaker—Scenes in the House of Representatives.

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 8.—The Fifty-second Congress organized yesterday. At noon the House was called to order, and Holman of Indiana nominated for Speaker Charles F. Crisp of Georgia, Henderson of Iowa nominated T. B. Reed of Maine, and Simpson of Kansas nominated Thomas Watson of Georgia. The roll was called and the vote resulted in 228 votes for Crisp, 88 for Reed and 8 for Watson. Crisp was declared elected.

The excited feelings so apparent throughout the Speakership contest had no part in the proceedings of the House today. When McMillan appeared, many members who had not been with him in the fight rushed up to shake hands and tell him he made a good stand against the inevitable. Springer had on his coat lapel a bright scarlet pink, which had been the emblem of his campaign. Having cast his vote and influence to Crisp, he was in high favor with the victors. When the nominations for Speaker were made this morning, that of Reed was the only one greeted with applause. Jerry Simpson, acting for the Farmer's Alliance party of nine, nominated Watson of Georgia, and a smile spread over the House. When Judge Holman placed Crisp in nomination the Democrats reserved their applause for the moment when he should be declared elected and escorted into the House. But at the name of Reed the 83 Republicans made all the noise consistent with their numbers and their votes were cast in peculiarly loud voices to show they were there. During the roll call Mills stood back behind the rail on the Democratic side and when his name was called he voted with his usual depth of voice and earnestness of manner. Hoar and Williams (Mass.), who were Mills' most active workers did not vote. The silence on the Democratic side remained unbroken while the tellers counted the votes, Crisp, 238, Reed, 93; Watson, 8. But when the Clerk announced Crisp elected Speaker wild bursts of applause filled the House. As Mills and Reed conducted the Speaker to the Chair all the members stood in their places clapping their hands and cheering.

Why Hoar Did Not Vote for Crisp
WASHINGTON, December 8.—Sleiman Hoar, of Massachusetts, when asked today why he did not vote for Speaker on the roll call to-day, said:

"Last Fall I stated that in the coming contest for the Speakership I would vote for no candidate who would not promise to use his influence, if elected Speaker, against the extension of silver coinage. When Crisp became a candidate of the party, I sent to him and asked him to give me his promise, which he declined to do. In my judgment, however, he will do what he refuses to promise to do, namely, use his influence as Speaker against the consideration of measures looking to the extension of the coinage of silver. Still, as I could not get his promise, he could not get my vote."

Heavy Storms—Trains Delayed.
ASHLAND, Or., December 8.—Unusually heavy rainstorms have prevailed in Southern Oregon and Northern California since last night. Heavy snows have fallen on the Siskiyou, interfering seriously with the trains on the Southern Pacific. The south-bound passenger, leaving here at noon to-day, was delayed by snow and an icy track five hours between Ashland and Siskiyou at the summit of the mountain. The north-bound overland, due here at 4:10 this afternoon, cannot get here until late to-night.

Getting the San Francisco Ready for Sea.
VALLEJO, Cal., December 8.—Men at the Navy Yard are working over time to get the cruiser San Francisco ready for sea by Friday. Nothing further is known.

The Hale and Norcross Suit.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 8.—To-day was one of argument in the Hale & Norcross mining suit, and little testimony was introduced. W. T. Baggett, attorney for Mr. Fox, plaintiff, announced that he would close the case to-morrow. Mr. Baggett offered an affidavit sworn to by Mr. Fox, which was received with a storm of objections. The affidavit recited that in the opinion of affiant the testimony of R. P. Keating, Superintendent of the Hale & Norcross mine, was being suppressed by his non-attendance in court, and that were he to testify, his testimony would be strong evidence for plaintiff; that in view of the said suppression of evidence, the plaintiff was entitled to judgment without further proceedings, and that Keating should be held guilty of contempt in refusing to testify. Byron Waters for the defense resented the insinuations that he and his associates were suppressing testimony. He characterized the insinuation as outrageous and cited authorities to show that Keating, who is no party to the action, could not be forced to appear in court, as he is a resident of Nevada. After a long argument Judge Hebbard denied all motions of plaintiff. M. H. Fox, plaintiff, took the stand and testified that he was a holder of Hale & Norcross mining stock since 1886. Attorney Baggett gave notice that he would file a motion to amend the complaint to add a clause charging the defendants with negligence. He also decided to substitute for the names John Doe, Richard Roe, etc., those of A. Haywards, W. S. Hobart and the Sharon estate as owners of the Nevada Mill.

A Commercial Convention.

WASHINGTON, December 8.—While it is impossible to obtain official acknowledgment to that effect, it is known that a Commercial Convention under the reciprocity clause of the McKinley Act, has been practically concluded between Germany and the United States, and that the President will soon issue a proclamation announcing the fact. The Convention contemplates the free importation of Germany's sugar into the United States, and a reduction of duty on American cereals imported into Germany, of from five to three and one-half marks.

The Banks Thinning Out.

WASHINGTON, December 8.—The Republican Senate caucus to-day appointed a committee to reorganize the committees. Serious inroads have been made by death, resignation and failure of re-election in the ranks of the Senate as it stood at the close of the Fifty-first Congress. In the Fifty-second there are not less than seventy-two vacancies, including seven chairmanships. The Committee on Finance retains every one of its thirteen members, while Senator Sherman's Committee on Foreign Relations has lost five of its nine Senators.

Pacific Coast Transportation by Water.

WASHINGTON, December 8.—The Census Bureau to-day issued a bulletin on the subject of transportation by water on the Pacific Coast considered as an industry. The information furnished relates to the business of transportation by water as carried on in 1889 by all craft over five tons, registered in ports of California, Oregon and Washington. Total craft, 1843; value, $23,067,370; freight movement by tons, 8,818,383; gross earnings, $20,628,315; expenses, $17,274,809.

Alliance Convention Postponed.

WASHINGTON, December 8.—W. S. McAllister of Mississippi, Chairman of the National Committee of the Anti-Sub-Treasury Alliance, to-day issued a notice postponing the Convention from December 16th to a date to be named hereafter.

Heavy Robbery.

ST. PETERSBURG, December 8.—A dispatch from Vladivostok says thieves have robbed the government treasury there of $250,000. The thieves entered and escaped by an underground passage.

We wish to inform the public that we keep the lowest priced house in town, where all kinds of refreshments, meals, lunches, fine liquors, native and foreign wines, draught beer 5 cent cigars and well ventilated lodgings with good beds can be obtained. Our continued good business is in itself a recommendation, and we wish to increase it. Let all those who have never come before, and those who have, now come the more. Stroh & Block, Commercial Row.

The Austin Advocate says J. L. Wines, attorney for the Central Pacific Company, paid $17,118 99 on account of Central Pacific taxes for 1891. The Assessor of Lander county assessed the railroad at $20,000 per mile this year, but it appears the officials accepted the valuation of the State Board of Assessors—$14,000 per mile—and Lander will have no suit with the Central Pacific Company for taxes this year.

Judge Rising has given A. Fred, a pedler, $300 damages against L. M. McNealey. McNealey, who is Constable in Mason Valley, arrested Fred without a warrant for peddling without a license. Fred brought suit in the District Court at Dayton against the Constable, with the result stated. The costs and judgment in the case amount to about $1,000.

The Riverside Mills have received a carload of kiln-dried corn meal, made from Missouri river bottoms corn, the best in the world.

Three parties of railroad surveyors, all in the employ of the Rio Grande Western, are said to be in the field in Western Utah, near the Nevada line. One of these parties is at Ironton, near Tintic, another near Dugway in the Deep Creek country, and the third in the mountains seventy-five miles west of Tintic.

A DREARY OUTLOOK IN CANDELARIA.

Many Miners Have Left and Others Gloom.

The Chloride Belt says: December 1st, according to announcement in last week's Belt, the Mt. Diablo and Holmes mines closed down.

It is not probable that work will be resumed before Spring in either of the properties, and no certainty of its being done then.

Upwards of 400 men find themselves out of employment at the beginning of Winter. Among the number are undoubtedly many who have not laid by for a rainy day, and these, together with their families, will experience sorrow and privation during the long dreary season that is upon us.

In whatever light the closing down is viewed, it is admitted to be a calamity of large proportions to Southwestern Nevada. While there is a difference of opinion entertained in Candelaria in regard to the situation, elsewhere throughout this portion of the State the view held appears to be that the miners made a serious mistake in their peremptory rejection of the offer made to them, and that only hardship and privation will result to the many by their action.

The leaders among the miners profess to believe that the mines will not remain closed down for any length of time. They base their belief upon the hope that silver will soon experience considerable rise. We trust they are right.

There is no sense in attempting to disguise the fact that the outlook for the Winter is a dreary one. Even the Clerk of the Weather is taking a hand in impressing this fact upon us. Wednesday a cold snap set in, and with raw, piercing winds and snow squalls prevailing daily, we are compelled, for consistency's sake, to omit a carefully prepared article, the intent of which was to prove that Candelaria is the central point in the Hawthorne citrus belt. This morning the thermometer recorded 12 degrees above zero at daybreak.

Many miners have procured cooking utensils and have started in to "boating."

THE WEATHER.

Who Shall Decide When Weather Prophets Disagree

An old stager on the street yesterday afternoon was interrogated as to what his opinion was on the weather. He gave a hasty survey of the canopy from whence the weather is supposed to manifest itself, and after half a minute spent in painful reflection, said he would be switched if it wasn't hard to tell.

The local prophets have now got the weather business so mixed up that it is hard to tell what the outcome of a storm will be. At the present time, with the clouds rolling over the mountains and a drizzling rain falling, it seems as though Winter might be shaking her hoary locks at us, but as the old stager remarked, "it's blamed hard to tell." However, it is a good plan to see that the wood pile is of comfortable proportions.

NOSS JOLITIES.

They Deserve Success and Are Achieving It.

The Ottawa, Kansas, Republican says: "The Noss family, the monarchs of musical comedy, gave a meritorious entertainment last night to a good house. Mr. Noss was inimitable in his comical role, and May, Berthe, Floe, Lottie, Frank and Fred surprised and delighted everybody. There appeared to be no end to the variety and excellence of the programme. Encores were numerous and persistent and the applause demonstrative and continuous. The artists are all good looking and the enlour is pleasing and satisfactory. This is a wonderful family giving a wonderful entertainment. They deserve and have had great success."

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

A Fatal Accident.

Paul B. Hamilton was fatally injured at Andersons, Shasta county, California, on December 2nd and died two days later. He was engaged in cleaning out a well when the bucket fell from the top onto him, breaking three ribs and injuring him internally. He was about 55 years of age. He leaves an orphan child aged four years, his wife having died a short time ago. Deceased was an old resident of Washoe county and was well known here.

A Sharp Practice.

You call it when reading an interesting article and find at its close that you've read an advertisement. Don't condemn the advertiser. You won't read the ordinary advertisement. All advertisers feel this in common with the writer who takes this means of telling you that Simmon's Liver Regulator is the best medicine for malaria, impure blood and a poisoned system. Equally as good for indigestion and biliousness.

Patrick J. Field, a telegraph operator, committed suicide in the ticket office at Gold Hill by shooting himself through the breast. He was a native of Bangor, Maine, 30 years of age, and a member of the Emmet Guard and of Storey Lodge, A. O. U. W.

A New King of the Gypsies.

A king of the gypsies of the Americas has been born. It was out in the woods of Newton, in a tent, Saturday afternoon, that he was ushered into the world, and thus may Massachusetts claim the distinction of being the birthplace of him who will be christened King John of the gypsies, and proclaimed throughout all gypsyland as successor of King Henry, late ruler over the Romy tribes of the United States, Canada and the South American states.

The royal youngster—he weighed eleven pounds—is the son of Tryphena, thirty-fourth queen of the Zut tribe of Roman umchels, and of Gypsy Sam, whose surname is Buckland. They were made one in marriage England fourteen years ago. The mother is a granddaughter of Charlotte, who was the twenty-seventh queen of the Zut tribe of the Basque and Asturias provinces in Spain.

The youthful king is the fifth child of the couple, and his titles comes to him through his being the first son born of Queen Tryphena, after the death of King Henry, which occurred in Birmingham, England, in November, 1890. Of the other children, Lena, twelve years of age, has for a godfather Sir John Sheridan McCloud, of England; Phoebe, born in Providence eight years ago, claims ex-Governor Sprague as her godfather; the late Dr. Knight, bishop of Milwaukee, was godfather of Samuel, a little tot of three years, and Katie, six years old, has for a godmother Mrs. Ernest Girard of Middletown, Conn.—Boston Advertiser.

Generous "Drammers."

The Commercial Travelers' association of New England has determined to erect a monument for itself. This association is composed of 3,000 of the smartest and most wide awake men of the land. They are as a rule men of intelligence and good standing, or they could not retain the positions which they hold and command the high salaries which they receive. The association has decided to erect an industrial and educational building at Good Will Homes and dedicate it to the work of saving boys. This, as all will admit, a most praiseworthy enterprise and one that will commend itself to all classes.

The homes now shelter nearly fifty boys, who need a workroom and a schoolroom badly. Many of the lads there have mechanical tastes which should receive encouragement and training. The farm work is not adapted to all, but with the new building and tools and machinery which will be added to it the homes will have taken a long stride toward the successful accomplishment of its aim.—Fairfield (Me.) Enterprise.

A Snake Stole the Eggs.

Mr. H. C. Fitzgerald, who resides five miles southwest of Holden, tells us a good one on an egg stealing blacksnake that has been operating around his chicken house. Mr. Fitzgerald furnished one of his hen nests with a finely polished nest egg, which is neither a novel nor uncommon thing for chicken raisers to do. On the second day the nest egg disappeared, and its whereabouts were not discovered until last Sunday. On that day the son of Mr. Fitzgerald killed a large blacksnake, which he discovered to be unusually large where a snake's stomach is supposed to be. The inquisitiveness of young Fitzgerald led him to hold an autopsy on the body of his snake-ship, and lo, the long lost egg was found to be the cause of the unnatural enlargement. The nest egg had remained in the voracious maw of the snake for six weeks.—Holden (Mo.) Herald.

A BLACKING MONOPOLY.

THE PADRONE SYSTEM HAS IN-VADED NEW YORK'S FERRIES.

Men Who Control the Bootblacking Privilege on Board the Ferryboats and in Large Business Buildings—A Business
That Has Grown.

The unfailing law of business is that wherever there is an opportunity for the profitable investment of capital the money is forthcoming to keep that business booming and to seize upon the most advantageous sites. And so it has come about that capitalists have not disdained to take hold of the bootblacking business. While waiting for a boat outside of the Twenty-third street ferry to Jersey City a Sun reporter got a shine from a remarkably bright and efficient American boy, whose mode of cleaning and shining indicated a good deal of experience.

"Why don't you go inside and pick up business on the boats, where your customers can get comfortable seats?" inquired the reporter.

"I wish I could," said the boy, "but they won't let me do it."

"Why, I have seen boys on the boats blacking boots, and they seem to make lots of money."

"Yes. They don't see a day that they do not pick up at least a dollar, and from that all the way up to three or four, or sometimes five. But they can't keep the money themselves."

"Why not?"

"They have to give it up to the Italian padrones. There are three Italians who have bought the right from the railroad company, and they are the only ones who are permitted to black boots on the ferryboats. They have hired a lot of Italian boys, to whom they pay three dollars or four dollars a week, and the boys are compelled to give up all their earnings to the padrones who hire them.

If the boys do not turn in an amount that is believed to be all their earnings
the padrones put on spotters and watch them, and see that they do pay up.

BOOTBLACK PRINCES.

"Well, why don't you go in and buy the right to shine boots on the boats?"

"Me? Why, do you know what those padrones pay for the right to black boots on all the boats? They pay over $2,000 a year, and keep the men's cabins clean.
A poor boy hasn't much chance to get that job. I used to work for them, but I find I can make more money by standing outside and catching some of the customers before they get on the boat.
Then all I get is clean profit, and I don't have to pay over to any padrone."

On all the steamboats and steamships and railroads, at the hotels, in front of saloons—in fact, everywhere where men go there are to be found capitalist bootblacks who hire the best places, or there is an arrangement by which the owner of the boat or hotel or barber shop hires some one to do the bootblacking and takes the money himself. There have thus arisen several bootblack princes, such as the enterprising Italian who has the monopoly of the bootblacking at the Produce exchange, or the happy colored gentleman who does up the business in the Equitable building.

Many of the bootblack princes have wives and families and nice homes, and they dress well and live well. At the big hotels the income from the privilege of blacking boots is a considerable part of the revenue of the house. It has long ceased to be a perquisite of the servant.
A chair in a good place will yield five dollars a day for bootblacking, and on extra occasions a good deal more. The bulk of the work is done by men. It really requires considerable bone and sinew to black a pair of boots well, and the man who has once noticed the difference between the way an average boy does it and the way a man takes hold of the work will not care to risk the boy's work again.

ART IN BLACKING BOOTS.

There are a good many points about blacking boots that give scope to the genius of the workman, as in all manual occupations. The bootblack who once establishes a reputation for quick and good work has his fortune made. Men will go out of their way to meet him,
and will wait their turn as for a favorite barber.

On hot days bootblacks' chairs are very tempting on the street corners in the shade, and many a man stops and takes a shine just for a rest. The summer is the bootblacks' harvest, because there is so much traveling and so much dust. Some saloon keepers exact rent from the Italians who have chairs for bootblacking in front of their saloons.
Others are content to use the Italians' services in cleaning up the place or for running errands. Sometimes the proprietors come out and occupy the chairs
as lounging places, to the great chagrin
of the Italian owners.

Some time ago it was pointed out that a good many women would get their shoes cleaned and shined as men do if they could have the same facilities.
Nobody seems to have acted on this suggestion yet. But it seems likely that there would be money in it. When one man finds out that there is money in it others will follow. As it is, many women are ashamed of their shoes, and long to get up on the chairs and have a shine.
Occasionally a venturesome girl does so,
but she generally finds herself an object of considerable curiosity.

Improvements may be seen in the evolution of the bootblacking business.
Fancy chairs, better blacking, a man at each foot, the use of chamois bands for finishing, little points of attention to dress, the varnishing of russet shoes, the oil shine—all these show that the bootblacks are in harmony with the spirit of the age; that they have their eyes open to the necessity for keeping pace with the progress that is going on in other departments of human activity. When the chorus of the nations calls upon each business to show what it has done of importance in the evolution of society the modern bootblack will take no subordinate place, but he will shine like one of his own most polished shoes.—New York Sun.
